

Hospitals increasingly outsource processes within Critical Care to focus on core of their care services, cut costs or increase efficiency.

Example of services and companies

Service offering for Critical Care is becoming an important segment of the care environment.

Patient-facing

Physician-facing

Equipment-facing

Hospital-facing

Digital journal solutions help patients to recover faster from traumatic experiences associated with ICU.

Post-ICU

Outsourcing staff, including physicians, assistants, technicians, nurses, etc.

OPYS
PHYSICIAN SERVICES

Supplies management, incl. procurement of consumables and accessories, preparation of OR / CC kits, etc.

Promedical

Facility management services up to full operational management.

FRESENIUS VAMED

Critical care away from hospital: e.g. growth of home and nursing facilities renal care.

Davita
Kidney Care

Telemedicine including tele-ICU care of critically ill patients, telemetry monitoring, etc.

HicuityHealth

Medication management, incl. specialized packaging of medication and HW / SW solutions.

BD

Solution providers offer hospitals portfolio of services, incl. financing, training, service contracts, planning & design...

GETINGE