In the US, Philips will not return to the sale of hospital ventilation products, and certain out-of-hospital respiratory care products.

Sales discontinuation 19 sleep and respiratory products are discontinued in the US End of Service Product Type Product Portable Ventilator Trilogy 100/200/202 Ventilation Solution F30* V60 / V60 Plus Ventilator Alice PDx Sleep Diagnostic Machine Airway Clearance Device CoughAssist I-neb AAD Nebulizer Respiratory Drug Delivery Positional Sleep Therapy Device NightBalance Respiratory Drug Delivery Other nebulizers Respiratory Drug Delivery Other RDD products Ventilator V30 Alice 6 Sleep Diagnostic Machine Alice NightOne Sleep Diagnostic Machine Portable PAP Therapy System DreamStation Go EverFlo Home Oxygen System Home Oxygen System Millennium M10

OmniLab Advanced +

Trilogy EVO & EV300

SimplyGo

SimplyGo Mini

Titration System

Home Ventilator

Portable Oxygen Concentrator

Portable Oxygen Concentrator

 Philips agrees with US FDA on the terms of a consent decree on Jan 29, 2024.

PHILIPS

RESPIRONICS

 Philips would halt sales of all of its breathing machines in the US, until the relevant requirements of the consent decree are met.

"When we have the consent decree, then the timeline will be clarified, but it normally takes five to seven years."

Roy Jakobs, Philips CEO